Statement of Jurisdiction

This is a suit in original equal justice being rendered in the original equity admiralty and maritime jurisdiction by nature law of nations in personam only, arising within the 1786/1836 Treaty of Marrakech, ARTICLE XXI; 1781 Articles of Confederation Article VI, IX, XXII, XXIII; written 1789 constitution of the united states of america in congress assembled, Article III., §2, §§1 & §§2 and ARTICLE VI; 1824 Treaty of Tunis, Article XII.; and the Judicature Act of 1789 1 stat 73 §9, §11, §16, §20, §22, §25, §26, §30, and §32. The rights Your orator are entitled to as a private Moor americas aboriginal virginian national, a Master Merchant, a Master Mason, a Shereef, a Admiral, a Seamen, a Piloter, a Commander, Maritime lien holder of all vessels, ships, chattels, goods, cargo, crafts, tenements, charters, estates, commodities Land, Air, Water etc, Owner Maritime lien holder navigating the high seas onshore and offshore and subject, ambassador-at-large and Noble of the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire are of those classes which said maritime treaties, constitution and act, either confers or has taken under their protection, without such obligation Your orator's rights are in jeopardy of being destroyed and slandered beyond repair where no adequate remedy for their enforcement is provided by the forms of letters of Marque/Reprisal proceedings of a purely colorable quasi-in rem admiralty and maritime legal nature. The same necessity invokes and justifies in cases to which its remedies can be applied, that jurisdiction in equity vested by said maritime treaties, constitution, and act cannot be affected by the legislation of the emergency provisional congress by a committee of the states, the states, nor any agencies subject, ambassador-at-large to the law of the district of columbia. SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the circuit courts shall have original cognizance, concurrent with the courts of the several States, of all suits of a civil nature at common law or in equity, where the matter in dispute exceeds, exclusive of costs, the sum or value of five hundred dollars, and the United States are plaintiffs, or petitioners; or an alien is a party, or the suit is between a citizen of the State where the suit is brought, and a citizen of another State. And shall have exclusive cognizance of all crimes and offences cognizable under the authority of the United States, except where this act otherwise provides, or the laws of the United States shall otherwise direct, and concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts of the crimes and offences cognizable therein. But no person shall be arrested in one district for trial in another, in any civil action before a circuit or district court. And no civil suit shall be brought before either of said courts against an inhabitant of the United States, by any original process in any other district than that whereof he is an inhabitant, or in which he shall be found at the time of serving the writ, nor shall any district or circuit court have cognizance of any suit to recover the contents of any promissory note or other chose in action in favour of an assignee, unless a suit might have been prosecuted in such court to recover the said contents if no assignment had been made, except in cases of foreign bills of exchange. circuit courts shall also have appellate jurisdiction from the district courts under the regulations and restrictions herein after provided.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of circuit courts, in causes in equity and of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, to cause the facts on which they found their sentence or decree, fully to appear upon the record either from the pleadings and decree itself, or a state of the case agreed by the parties, or their counsel, or if they disagree by a stating of the case by the court.

SEC. 22. And be it further enacted, That final decrees and judgments in civil actions in a district court, where the matter in dispute exceeds the sum or value of fifty dollars, exclusive of costs, may be reexamined, and reversed or affirmed in a circuit court, holden in the same district, upon a writ of error, whereto shall be annexed and returned therewith at the day and place therein mentioned, an authenticated transcript of the record, an assignment of errors, and prayer for reversal, with a citation to the adverse party, signed by the judge of such district court, or a justice of the Supreme Court, the adverse party having at least twenty days' notice. And upon a like process, may final judgments and decrees in civil actions, and suits in equity in a circuit court, brought there by original process, or removed there from courts of the several States, or removed there by appeal from a district court where the matter in dispute exceeds the sum or value of two thousand dollars, exclusive of costs, be re-examined and reversed or affirmed in the Supreme Court, the citation being in such case signed by a judge of such circuit court, or justice of the Supreme Court, and the adverse party having at least thirty days' notice. But there shall be no reversal in either court on such writ of error for error in ruling any plea in abatement, other than a plea to the jurisdiction of the court, or such plea to a petition or bill in equity, as is in the nature of a demurrer, or for any error in fact. And writs of error shall not be brought but within five years after rendering or passing the judgment or decree complained of, or in case the person entitled to such writ of error be an infant, feme covert, non compos mentis, or imprisoned, then within five years as aforesaid, exclusive of the time of such disability. And every justice or judge signing a citation on any writ of error as aforesaid, shall take good and sufficient security, that the plaintiff in error shall prosecute his writ to effect, and answer all damages and costs if he fail to make his plea good.

SEC. 24. And be it further enacted, That when a judgment or decree shall be reversed in a circuit court, such court shall proceed to render such judgment or pass such decree as the district court should have rendered or passed; and the Supreme Court shall do the same on reversals therein, except where the reversal is in favour of the plaintiff, or petitioner in the original suit, and the damages to be assessed, or matter to be decreed, are uncertain, in which case they shall remand the cause for a final decision. And the Supreme Court shall not issue execution in causes that are removed before them by writs of error, but shall send a special mandate to the circuit court to award execution thereupon.

SEC. 25. And be it further enacted, That a final judgment or decree in any suit, in the highest court of law or equity of a State in which a decision in the suit could be had, where is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of, or an authority exercised under the United States, and the decision is against their validity; or where is drawn in question the validity of a statute of, or an authority exercised under any State, on the ground of their being repugnant to the constitution, treaties or laws of the United States, and the decision is in favour of such their validity, or where is drawn in question the construction of any clause of the constitution, or of a treaty, or statute of, or commission held under the United States, and the decision is against the title, right, privilege or exemption specially set up or claimed by either party, under such clause of the said Constitution, treaty, statute or commission, may be re-examined and reversed or affirmed in the Supreme Court of the United States upon a writ of error, the citation being signed by the chief justice, or judge or chancellor of the court rendering or passing the judgment or decree complained of, or by a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, in the same manner and under the same regulations, and the writ shall have the same effect, as if the judgment or decree complained of had been rendered or passed in a circuit court, and the proceeding upon the reversal shall also be the same, except that the Supreme

But no other error shall be assigned or regarded as a ground of reversal in any such case as aforesaid, than such as appears on the face of the record, and immediately respects the before mentioned questions of validity or construction of the said constitution, treaties, statutes, commissions, or authorities in dispute.

SEC. 30. And be it further enacted, That the mode of proof by oral testimony and examination of witnesses in open court shall be the same in all the courts of the United States, as well in the trial of causes in equity and of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, as of actions at common law. And when the testimony of any person shall be necessary in any civil cause depending in any district in any court of the United States, who shall live at a greater distance from the place of trial than one hundred miles, or is bound on a voyage to sea, or is about to go out of the United States, or out of such district, and to a greater distance from the place of trial than as aforesaid, before the time of trial, or is ancient or very infirm, the deposition of such person may be taken de bene esse before any justice or judge of any of the courts of the United States, or before any chancellor, justice or judge of a supreme or superior court, mayor or chief magistrate of a city, or judge of a county court or court of common pleas of any of the United States, not being of counsel or attorney to either of the parties, or interested in the event of the cause, provided that a notification from the magistrate before whom the deposition is to be taken to the adverse party, to be present at the taking of the same, and to put interrogatories, if he think fit, be first made out and served on the adverse party or his attorney as either may be nearest, if either is within one hundred miles of the place of such caption, allowing time for their attendance after notified, not less than at the rate of one day, Sundays exclusive, for every twenty miles travel. And in causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, or other cases of seizure when a libel shall be filed, in which an adverse party is not named, and depositions of persons circumstanced as aforesaid shall be taken before a claim be put in, the like

Hence, whenever one person has obtained either the labor or property of your orator, he should pay or account therefore, unless he can prove it was a gift by your orator; your orator is interested in the settlement, and has been aggrieved by errors, omissions and false credits therein; and that a just and equitable maritime settlement will benefit him. SPECIAL CAUSE: Amended Complaint (with Congressional Questions Raised)

The primary subject matter issue of the Claimant's speciali causa (special cause) in regards to Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) is for the complete restoration against the destruction of rights in libel born of special private fiduciary trust relations between the parties, either express, resulting, constructive, or executory, including treaties, upon which he has relied for fair dealing, good faith, accurate, complete, and equitable maritime treatment, excluding any form of casuistry. Your orator, while a minor, became entitled to a large estate that has all be administered and sustained, in open, stated, or settled accounts where by reason of some mistake, or omission, or accident, or undue advantage, the account is vitiated, and the balance incorrectly fixed; where by reason of some fiduciary relation of trust or confidence between the Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) and the Claimant/Suitor/Libellant, where the Claimant was at a disadvantage, and as a consequence the account is inequitable. The Claimant equitable maritime cause is a complex accounting, and he is without full facts of the maritime assets of the trust and relies exclusively on the mode of compelling the Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) to make disclosure and therefore a discovery by suit in equity and admiralty by nature is indispensable. The Claimant/Suitor/Libellant has business dealings, involving many items, in consequence of relations of trust, or confidence, Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) have handled the estate of the Claimant; or done business for him. The Claimant is the beneficial party entitled to a settlement and demand a bill for an accounting for the funds or other property in which the Claimant/Suitor/Libellant has an interest, and to pay over whatever may be due or belong to him.

“A good and faithful servant shall make a full accounting to the owner, of the talents he was granted”

The Claimant/Suitor/Libellant through his inherent power of appointment, has appointed most (in the private) and now appoints all Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) by transfer on special deposit, valuable and sufficient consideration (1796 Treaty of Tripoli, ARTICLE III & X), for the fiduciary appointment, as well as, fully granting, conveying, and delivering legal title to be in the form of a Bill of Lading: Deed of Conveyance to each Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) to be held in private by said Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) for the private enjoyment, use, possession, and benefit of the Claimant(s) for the private enjoyment, use, possession, and benefit of the Claimant(s) as beneficiary. It is Claimant's manifest intent, purpose, to execute actual and constructive grant and conveyance on the special deposit the trust res to demand for specific performance, by due particularity, to produce a full accounting, list of all real, personal, and equitable maritime assets or other property in which the Claimant has an interest; to pay over whatever may be due or belong to him, or the balance due Claimant/Suitor/Libellant on a fair accounting; release any and all collateral and return all remaining trust res, concerning said debts due to my estate; and release any and all collateral, and return all remaining trust res, by reconversion.

Your orator, as the beneficial party entitled, in consequence of such relations various sums of money or other property of the Claimant went, or should have gone, into the possession, or under the control, of the Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) giving items, dates, values, and circumstances. The Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) who has been privately appointed has neither Affirmed or Denied the fiduciary relation, or rendered an account of such money and property and the profits thereof and Your orator now requires for an account to be taken by the Clerk and Master and for a decree for the amount found due.

If the Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) has any sureties bound for his good conduct, they should be made Fiduciary(ies)/Defendant(s)/Libelee(s), and their suretyship alleged in the body of the bill be equitably maritime/admiralty attached under terms and conditions of the various treaties between the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire and united states of america in congress assembled.

In the present, the Court is to ensure rogers, rettig, charles paul d/b/a CHARLES PAUL RETTIG stop all actions in administering the vessel, Kenneth Anderson Brown, et al., against grantee/grantor/beneficiary/heir notifications, demands and benefit and discontinue the destruction of Claimant/Moor grantee/beneficiary and Trust's unalienable rights and property by taxation, and stop all actions concerning legal, colorable internal revenue code(s), titled: "irs withholding compliance program," by releasing and restoring the vessel, Kenneth Anderson Brown et al., from piracy on the high seas: irs withholding compliance program and letters of marque/reprisal by irs withholding compliance program, and ensure no united states tax or georgia state tax are assessed concerning any labor derived monetary disbursement from Truist Bank.

the 1781 Articles of Confederation is already in breach of faith because its “People who are bound by oath to be Persons Worthy of Trust” allowed the committee of states to go to war with a private People called Moors intentionally using DixieCrats aka Democrats, etc. allowing them to adopt corporate equity by characteristic admiralty maritime amendments to intentionally disenfranchise the Moors one by one to citizens of the united states for the district of columbia using tools like reconstruction of history to disenfranchise the Moors by stripping them of the customs and culture of their ancestors. But I, as the Lord of the Land, Air and Water, the Moor subject, ambassador-at-large and Noble of the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire, am offering grace and forgiveness to the United States in congress assembled and its “People who are bound by oath to be Persons Worthy of Trust” as long as you turn back from your wicked ways and move in a manner not contrary to Equity, good conscience and good reason. Prince George in the 1763 proclamation never gave consent by license for the united states for the district of columbia and its agents to step outside of the ten miles square. So I command swain, laura t., d/b/a LAURA T. SWAIN, et al., chief judge acting as Master/Chancellor, et al., and justices for supreme court of the united states to take action to restore the confederacy of the united states of america in congress assembled and its several states so that the Citizens of the several states may be in peace. As for the subjects of the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire, the moment they claim to be Moors, I demand they be immediately released and set at liberty for the Emperor never gave permission or consent for any subjects/Beneficiaries to be naturalized or members of any one of the United States. Subjects (ambassadors-at-large, Nobles and consuls) are under the Emperor and in my own right, never entertained the idea or Subject Matter known as Naturalization for Moors because there is no such thing as Citizenship in the Dominions of the Al Maroc Shereefian Empire. Prize is a term used in admiralty law to refer to equipment, vehicles, vessels, and cargo captured during armed conflict. The most common use of prize in this sense is the capture of an enemy ship and her cargo as a prize of war. In the past, the capturing force would commonly be allotted a share of the worth of the captured prize. Nations often granted letters of marque that would entitle private parties to capture enemy property, usually ships. Once the ship was secured

APPROVED, May 15, 1820.

Statement of the Cause

The primary subject matter issue of the libellant’s speciali causa (special cause) is for full restoration against the destruction of rights in contravention born of from trespasses upon the stipulations of maritime treaties including, but not limited to:

1. Detaining, molesting, interrupting his ability to pass and repass or otherwise impeding Libellant’s free ingress and regress to and from.
2. Blocking, clogging, or prohibiting his private enjoyment, use, possession, and benefit of his lands, tenements, goods and chattels, reputation, labor and senses.
3. Collecting any kind of rent tribute or tax from them and otherwise exercise his functions of rule over them.
4. Libel and Slander in attempts to destroy Libellant’s reputation, right to goods and chattels, credits, liberties, and his labor, or call upon Libellant’s for indemnity or satisfaction, on behalf of another, “under legal compulsion.”
5. Subject Libellant’s “under legal compulsion” to any statutes, codes, ordinances, provisions, prohibitions, and penalties, have been heavily prejudiced by the presumption that the Libellant was a citizen of the united states for the district of columbia, or Citizen of the united states of america in congress assembled,” and subject to their laws.
6. Treating Libellant as a belligerent and national of a designated enemy country.
7. Subjecting Libellant to any future inconvenience, probable or even possible to happen by the neglect, inadvertence or culpability of another, by guarding

SPECIAL CAUSE: Amended Complaint (with Congressional Questions Raised)

Libellant against possible or prospective injuries/destruction, and to preserve the means by which Libellant's existing maritime rights may be protected from future or contingent violations and breach.

8. Endangering Libellant implied equitable maritime surety from being injured by the creditor's delay in bringing suit, against the principal debtor.
9. The Libellant certificate of title of “Special Deposit” has been issued to the trustees and been delivered.
10. I have been besieged. There is a breach of reliance as my special deposit has been taken and never has it been applied to the accounting. I have been wronged.

“Equity delights in Equality”

Your orator requires this court to issue a Writ of QUIA TIMET (injunction) in the foregoing bill to inhibit and restrain the said Defendant(s)/Libelee(s) their heirs, assigns, and agents from continuing said act or acts complained of which are contrary to treaties, the Constitution, the laws of the State, or in violation of their charters. This Writ of Quia Timet is required for with good conscience and good reason; it is required that said injunction be made perpetual on the grounds that said acts are contrary to Equity, good conscience, good reason, and are repugnant to the treaties, constitution, laws of the united states of america in congress assembled or in violation of their charters. Your orator requires that said Defendant(s)/Libelee(s), their heirs, assigns, and agents are so ordered to absolutely desist and refrain from the commission of said trespasses therefrom.

"A Judge ought always to have Equity before his eyes"

Notice of the Conflict and Variance of law

The remedies sought are of a purely equitable maritime by nature, and the libellant elects to apply for equitable maritime remedy and full restoration and notices that it is an established principle that when there is a conflict between the rules of admiralty/maritime and the rules of equity, over the same subject matter, the rules of equity shall prevail. Further, the claimant states that no adequate, sufficient, or speedy remedy colorable admiralty at law can provide complete justice. Your orator therefore attaches a "Table of Authorities" that are based upon well-established inherent principles and equity in the admiralty and maritime jurisprudence by nature. The maxims in support of Your orator's special causes attached herewith by reference and attached hereto in Annex. Further the claimant/suitor/libellant does notice that this cause has been initiated in personam only and in accordance with the soul, intent and purpose of the rules of the 1910 supreme court of the united states "rules of practice in admiralty" number 16, and that Respondents are believed to be governed exclusively in accordance with the intent of Rule 23 of same in addition to prize proceedings.. "Stand by what has been decided, and do not disturb what is settled."
